

TABLE OF PENALTIES, other users

LEVEL OF INTENT	Unawareness Incompetence Negligence Accident Lack of intent	Carelessness Gross negligence Ignorance Proving a point Intent Recurrence	Criminal intent (damage, unauthorised use, espionage, confidentiality offence, abuse of public office, etc.) Pursuit of gain
▲ SEVERITY OF OFFENCE
Serious offence (an act that constitutes a misdemeanour or crime under the law), such as * Hacking * Unauthorised handling of material subject to the Criminal Code * Unauthorised distribution of material subject to the Copyright act * Deliberate, unauthorised port scanning * Deliberate distribution of malware * Denial of Service attack	Reporting to the police considered	Reported to the police	Reported to the police
Offence (gross abuse or security risk), such as * Unauthorised copying of applications and games * Installing unauthorised applications * Unauthorised possession of hacking/administration tools * Unauthorised service set-up * Handing over IDs * Risking confidential information	Notice / Access rights restriction 1 wk-3 mos (students)/ revoking access rights	Revoking access rights	Reported to the police  Revoking access rights
Minor offence (negligence) such as * Neglecting personal information security * Improper behaviour * Causing disturbance * Wasting IT resources * Neglecting the use of security software and updates * Forbidden commercial or political activity * Breach of physical access monitoring rules	Notice / Access rights restriction 1 wk - 1 mo (students)	Notice / Access rights restriction 1 wk - 2 mos (students)/ revoking access rights	Reporting to the police considered  Revoking access rights
▲ SEVERITY OF OFFENCE

Access to systems will be denied due to the lack of confidence caused by abuse.

Penalty classification:

	Reporting to the police possible
	Actions according to the University guidelines and/or determined by