Maximum number of players in a team is 14 and maximum number of officials is 2 per team.

Rules

The official rules of FIFA are followed with following exceptions:

- There are no off-sides
- Red card (both direct and one followed by two yellow cards) leads into a one match suspension
- Goal kicks and goalkeeper's throws and punts must touch the ground before crossing the center line

Time

Length of a match is 2x25 min.

Each team will play up to maximum of 3 matches per day.

Points

In group stage matches, win gives 3 points, tie 1 point and loss 0 points.

If two or more teams reach the same amount of points in group stage, the final position is decided as follows:

1. Goal difference from the matches played among the teams in question
2. Goals scored in the matches played among the teams in question
3. Goal difference from all group stage matches
4. Goals scored in all group stage matches
5. Draw

A tie in knockout matches is followed by 3 penalty shots.

Each team should have their own balls for warm-up.

It is on the teams' responsibility to have game suits in two different colors.

Number of the player must be visible on the game suit.

Organizers are not responsible for the insurance of the participants.

Organizing committee reserves the right to make changes to these rules.
